Street Play on Social Issues Organized by- NCC unit

On 4th December 2019, NCC cadets of Government P. G. College performed a street play on social issues in Rani Nangal village. The event was aimed at creating awareness among the local community about various social problems prevalent in the society and inspiring them to take action to address these issues. The street play was conducted in an open area in the village, and a large number of people from the surrounding areas were present to witness the performance. The play was a combination of various scenes depicting social problems like child marriage, dowry, domestic violence, discrimination, and other issues affecting society. The NCC cadets are to be commended for their excellent performance and dedication towards promoting social awareness in the community.
