Career Counseling Program

A career counseling session was organized by the Career Counseling Cell of Government P.G. College Bazpur on 7th May 2019. The session was conducted by Dr. Chandra Prakash, the Incharge of the Career Counseling Cell. The program was chaired by Principal Dr. Kamla Chaniyal, and the speakers were Dr. Nagendra Dwivedi, NCC Incharge, and Dr. Satya Prakash Sharma, HOD of the Hindi department. The session began with Dr. Chandra Prakash welcoming the students and introducing the speakers. Dr. Nagendra Dwivedi then took the stage and gave an inspiring talk about the importance of discipline and leadership in one's career. He shared his experiences as an NCC Incharge and encouraged students to join the NCC to develop these qualities. Dr. Satya Prakash Sharma then gave a talk on the importance of language skills in career development. He emphasized the need for students to focus on improving their language skills, especially in Hindi, as it is the national language of India. He also talked about the various career opportunities available for students with language skills.
