Career Counseling "Mera Sapna Mera Lakshya"

On 22nd April 2022, a career counseling program named "Mera Sapna Mera Lakshya" was organized by the District Program Officer of Child Development Service, Rudrapur, at Vikas Bhawan, Rudrapur. The program was participated by Dr. Pooja Rani and 25 girls of government P. G. College Bazpur. During the program, a female doctor from the District Hospital, Rudrapur, gave an informative speech about medical fields and medical courses. She shared valuable insights into the profession and encouraged the girls to pursue a career in the medical field. Mr. Surya Prakash Singh, the Child Development Program Officer, also gave a talk about the preparation for Indian Administrative Services (IAS) and Indian Police Services (IPS). He shared information about the eligibility criteria, exam pattern, and preparation strategies for these prestigious positions. Furthermore, the students were taken to the Bank of Baroda Self Employment Institute, where they were introduced to self-employment opportunities like beauty parlour courses, computer courses, sewing, painting, fish farming, etc. The institute also shared information on how to avail of loans and other financial assistance to set up their own businesses. Overall, the career counseling program was a great success, and the girls who attended it gained valuable insights into various career options. It was an excellent initiative by the District Program Officer of Child Development Service, Rudrapur, to encourage and guide the young girls towards a better future.
