Name of the Department: Department of Physics & IQAC

Name of the Event: Guest lecture on 'Development of Quantum Mechanics'

Date of the Event: 04/03/2023

On March 04, 2023, a lecture was organized by the Department of Physics and IQAC titled 'Development of Quantum Mechanics' in seminar room. The speaker of the lecture was Dr. N S Bisht, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, S S Jena Campus Almora. He shared important information about classical physics and quantum physics in his lecture. Dr. NS Bisht told that the smallest thing in the whole universe is quanta and quanta was discovered by the great physicist Max Planck. Today these small particles are studied in quantum physics, so that even more mysterious techniques can be developed in the future. In the said program, Principal Dr. Manuwar Arya, Dr. Adarsh Kumar Chaudhary, Incharge of Physics Department, faculty of Physics Mr. Yogesh Pandey, Mr. Sanjay Singh Bisht and many other students were present.
