Action taken on feedback collected from Alumni (2020-21)

1. Curriculum is found well structured, comprehensive, relevant and properly arranged. Departments are informed to improve the curriculum delivery planning for better understanding of the concerned subjects.
2. Departments are instructed for effective curriculum to enhance the team work.
3. College is going to request University to improve the Course Curriculum which would be effective in developing analytical and problem-solving skills, improves enhanced constructive learning, reflects current trends and practices in the respective discipline and also meet the societal requirements that can provide employability too.
4. The analysis of feedback from alumni is sent to University to take necessary actions.
