Voter Awareness Programme & Rally in Village Rahanta

Organized by: NSS Volunteers, ELC & SVEEP Committee of GPGC Bazpur
Venue: Village Rahanta

On 17-03-2024, the NSS Volunteers of Government Post Graduate College (GPGC) Bazpur, in collaboration with the Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) and the Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) committee, organized a Voters Awareness Programme & rally in Village Rahanta. The rally aimed to educate and motivate the residents of Rahanta about the importance of voting and to increase electoral participation.

Objectives:

- Increase Voter Awareness: Educate the villagers about the significance of their vote.
- Promote Electoral Literacy: Inform the community about the electoral process and their rights and responsibilities as voters.
- Encourage Participation: Motivate eligible voters to register and participate in the upcoming elections.

Activities Conducted:

Inaugural Session:

The rally commenced with an inaugural session at the village's Govt. Higher Secondary School. The session was addressed by Dr. B.K. Joshi, the nodal officer of SVEEP & ELC, GPGC Bazpur, who emphasized the power of each vote and the role of citizens in shaping the government.

Interactive Sessions:

Interactive sessions were held where villagers & NSS volunteers could ask questions about the voting process. Dr. Atul Upreti, Dr. Darshna Pant and Dr. Vandana provided information on how to register as a voter, the documents required, and how to verify voter details.

Procession:

The NSS volunteers, along with the ELC and SVEEP committee members, led a vibrant procession through the main streets of Rahanta, Tanda Amichand. Participants carried banners and placards with slogans like "Your Vote, Your Voice" and "Every Vote Counts." The procession attracted significant attention from the villagers, drawing them out of their homes and into the streets.

Distribution of Informational Material/ Resolution Letter (Sankalp patr) filling:

Pamphlets and brochures containing detailed information about the electoral process, the importance of voting, and FAQs were distributed among the villagers. These materials were designed to be easy to read and understand. Resolution Letters were also filled by the villagers.

The Voters Awareness Programme rally in Village Rahanta, organized by the NSS Volunteers, ELC, and SVEEP committee of GPGC Bazpur, was a resounding success. It played a crucial role in educating the villagers about their electoral rights and duties, thereby contributing to the strengthening of democratic processes at the grassroots level. The efforts of the volunteers and committee members were commendable, and the enthusiasm of the villagers was a testament to the success of the event.

Moving forward, the committee plans to organize similar rallies in other villages to ensure widespread voter awareness and participation in the upcoming elections.
