Poster Competition and Cleanliness Drive Organized by NSS Unit

The NSS Unit of Government P.G. College organized a cleanliness drive and a poster competition on the topics of de-addiction and Beti Bachao-Beti Padhao on 25th March 2021. The program was conducted under the supervision of Dr. Manpreet Singh, Senior Program Officer and Dr. Jaya Kandpal, Program Officer. The cleanliness drive was organized in the college premises. The students and faculty members actively participated in the drive and collected the waste materials from the surroundings. The students were also made aware of the importance of cleanliness and how it can contribute to a healthy environment. After the cleanliness drive, a poster competition was organized on the topics of de-addiction and Beti Bachao-Beti Padhao. The students used their creativity and artistic skills to create posters with powerful messages that highlighted the importance of de-addiction and the need to educate and empower girls.
