Cleanliness drive
Organized by- NSS Unit

On the occasion of NSS Foundation Day, the NSS unit of Government P.G. College Bazpur organized an event to maintain the botanical garden on the college premises. The event was held on 24th September 2021 and aimed at spreading awareness about the importance of maintaining a green environment. The program was organized by the NSS unit in collaboration with the college authorities. The event was divided into two parts - maintaining the botanical garden and spreading awareness about the COVID-19 guidelines. The volunteers of the NSS unit, along with the faculty members, worked towards maintaining the botanical garden. They cleaned the garden, pruned the plants, and added new plants to enhance its beauty.

Plantation Drive
Organized by- NSS unit

On 14 and 15th July 2020, the NSS unit of Government P.G. College Bazpur celebrated the Plantation Month by planting trees on the college premises. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, only the faculty members of the college were allowed to participate in the program.

The program was aimed at increasing the green cover of the college premises and spreading awareness about the importance of tree plantation. Around 50 to 60 Ashok plants were planted next to the multipurpose hall of the college. The program was organized by the NSS unit in collaboration with the college authorities.

The faculty members were provided with necessary tools such as shovels, watering cans, and fertilizers to plant the saplings. They were guided by the experts on the correct techniques of planting the trees and taking care of them. The plantation drive was carried out with full enthusiasm, and the faculty members actively participated in the program. Overall, the Plantation Month celebration by the NSS unit of Government P.G. College Bazpur was a great success.

The plantation of Ashok plants has contributed to the green cover of the college premises and will also help in purifying the air.

Anti-Drug Awareness Program

Organized by NSS Unit

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Government P.G. College organized an anti-drug awareness program on their adopted village Rani Nangal in Bazpur on March 22, 2021. The program was conducted by Dr. Manpreet Singh, Senior Program Officer, and Dr. Jaya Kandpal, Program Officer. The main objective of the program was to educate the villagers about the harmful effects of drug abuse and addiction and to create awareness among them. The program began with a rally which was taken out in the village. The rally was led by Dr. Manpreet Singh and Dr. Jaya Kandpal, along with the NSS volunteers. The rally passed through the streets of the village, carrying banners and placards with messages about the dangers of drug abuse. The volunteers also interacted with the villagers and distributed pamphlets containing information about the harmful effects of drugs.

Rangoli competition and Cleanliness drive
Organized by- NSS unit

On March 24, 2021, the NSS unit of Government P.G. College organized a cleanliness drive and a rangoli competition with the theme of "Dandi March - Gandhi Ji". The event was conducted by Dr. Manpreet Singh, Senior Program Officer, and Dr. Jaya Kandpal, Program Officer. The cleanliness drive was aimed at creating awareness among the students about the importance of keeping the environment clean and tidy. The students actively participated in the drive and collected waste materials from the college campus and its surroundings. They were sensitized about the harmful effects of plastic waste and were encouraged to adopt eco-friendly practices in their daily lives. The rangoli competition was a fun-filled event that allowed the students to showcase their creativity and artistic skills. The rangolis depicted various scenes and aspects of the Dandi March, such as Gandhi Ji's iconic salt march, the spinning wheel, and the Indian flag. Dr. Manpreet Singh and Dr. Jaya Kandpal appreciated the efforts of the students and encouraged them to continue participating in such activities that promote social and environmental awareness.

Poster Competition and Cleanliness Drive
Organized by NSS Unit

The NSS Unit of Government P.G. College organized a cleanliness drive and a poster competition on the topics of de-addiction and Beti Bachao-Beti Padhao on 25th March 2021. The program was conducted under the supervision of Dr. Manpreet Singh, Senior Program Officer and Dr. Jaya Kandpal, Program Officer. The cleanliness drive was organized in the college premises. The students and faculty members actively participated in the drive and collected the waste materials from the surroundings. The students were also made aware of the importance of cleanliness and how it can contribute to a healthy environment. After the cleanliness drive, a poster competition was organized on the topics of de-addiction and Beti Bachao-Beti Padhao. The students used their creativity and artistic skills to create posters with powerful messages that highlighted the importance of de-addiction and the need to educate and empower girls.

Awareness Program for College Girls
Organized by- Women's Harassment Redressal Cell

On 8 March 2021, the Women's Harassment Redressal Cell of Government P.G. College organized an awareness program for college girls on International Women Day. The event was aimed at informing the female students about their rights and ways to deal with harassment. Dr. Nootan Shrivastav, the coordinator of the cell, conducted the program. During the program, Dr. Shrivastav highlighted the importance of understanding one's rights and the ways to prevent and address harassment. She provided the students with information on various types of harassment and ways to report them. The coordinator also discussed the role of the Women's Harassment Redressal Cell in providing assistance and support to the affected students. The awareness program was successful in informing the students about their rights and creating awareness about the issue of harassment. The students were encouraged to speak up and seek help if they faced any kind of harassment. The program also emphasized the importance of creating a safe and respectful environment for everyone in the college. Overall, the initiative taken by the Women's Harassment Redressal Cell of Government P.G. College is commendable, and such awareness programs should be organized regularly to empower and protect female students.

Inauguration ceremony and Elocution Competition on Dandi March: Celebrating Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

Government P.G. College in Bazpur celebrated the grand event of "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" from 12th March 2021 to 5th April 2021, commemorating the spirit of independence and paying homage to the freedom fighters who fought for India's freedom. The month-long celebration aimed to educate and inspire students about the significant events and sacrifices that led to India's independence. The inauguration of the event took place on 12th March 2021, with Dr. Kamla Chaniyal, the principal of the college, leading the proceedings.

On the first day of the celebrations, 12th March 2021, the program was inaugurated by Dr. Kamla Chaniyal, the esteemed principal of Government P.G. College, Bazpur. She addressed the gathering, emphasizing the importance of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and encouraged students to actively participate in various activities scheduled throughout the month.

As part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, a thought-provoking elocution competition was conducted by Dr. Vimal Kumar Lakhtakiya, Program officer of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav. The competition focused on the theme of the Dandi March, one of the defining moments in India's freedom struggle led by Mahatma Gandhi. A total of eight enthusiastic students participated in the elocution competition, showcasing their oratory skills and historical knowledge related to the Dandi March. The students passionately presented their views, providing insights into the significance of this iconic event in India's freedom movement.

The competition provided a platform for students to express their thoughts on the historical, cultural, and political aspects of the Dandi March. It highlighted the importance of civil disobedience as a means of protest British colonial rule and its role in inspiring the masses to join the freedom struggle.

The Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations at Government P.G. College, Bazpur, created an atmosphere of patriotism, remembrance, and pride among the students. The elocution competition on the Dandi March allowed students to connect with the country's history and understand the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters.

The event not only fostered a sense of unity and appreciation for India's struggle for independence but also provided a platform for students to develop their public speaking and research skills. The month-long celebrations successfully educated and inspired the young minds of Government P.G. College, Bazpur, leaving a lasting impact on their understanding of India's glorious journey towards freedom.

Overall, the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav at Government P.G. College, Bazpur, served as a significant milestone in the college's commitment to promoting patriotism, historical awareness, and the spirit of freedom among its students.

Poster Competition on Dandi March: Celebrating Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

Government P. G. College Bazpur organized a poster competition on March 13, 2021, to commemorate the celebration of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav. The competition aimed to honor and remembered the historic Dandi March and the freedom fight that paved the way for India's independence. A total of 10 students enthusiastically participated in the event, showcasing their creativity and knowledge of this significant period in Indian history. The theme of the competition centered around the Dandi March and the broader freedom fight. Participants were encouraged to depict the historical significance of these events through their poster designs. The competition provided a platform for students from various disciplines to come together and express their artistic talents while fostering a sense of patriotism. After careful evaluation, the judges declared the following winners:

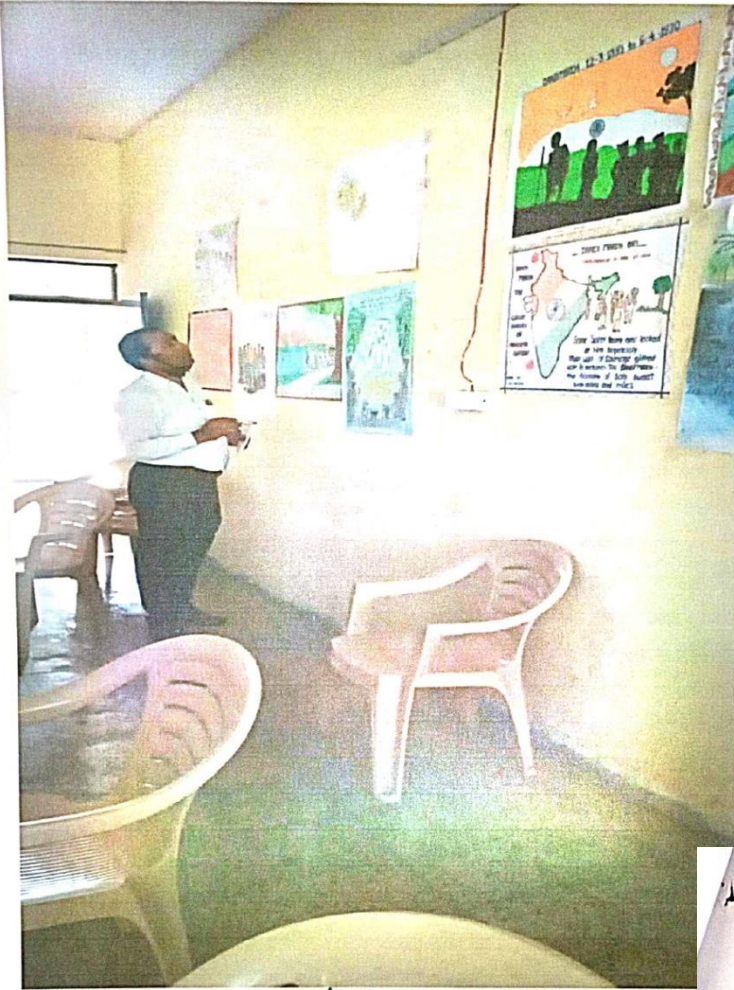

1st Position: Ritu Chaudhary - B.Sc. I Year
2nd Position: Pooja Sharma - M. Com I Semester
3rd Position: Ankita Sharma - M.Sc. I Semester

Conclusion:

The poster competition organized by Government P. G. College Bazpur on March 13, 2021, as part of the Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations, was a resounding success. It provided a platform for students to showcase their creativity, knowledge, and understanding of the Dandi March and the freedom struggle. The event fostered a sense of patriotism and appreciation for the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters. Congratulations to Ritu Chaudhary, Pooja Sharma, Ankita Sharma, and all the participants for their outstanding contributions to the competition.

Rangoli Competition on the Theme of Dandi March:
Celebrating Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

As part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations at Government P.G. College, Bazpur, a vibrant Rangoli competition was organized on 22nd March 2021. The competition focused on the theme of the Dandi March, commemorating 75 years of India's freedom. The event aimed to showcase the creativity and artistic talents of the students while paying tribute to this significant milestone in the nation's history. A total of 12 enthusiastic students from different departments participated in the rangoli competition. The participants' eagerness to express their artistic skills through the medium of rangoli added vibrancy to the celebration. After an impressive display of creativity and attention to detail, the winners were selected based on the theme interpretation, use of colors, and overall presentation of their rangoli designs. The results of the competition are as follows:

1st Position: Swati - B.Sc. I Year

2nd Position: Priya Diwakar - B.A. II Year and Aarti - B.A. I Year

3rd Position: Fiza - B.A. II Year

The competition not only added vibrant colors to the celebration but also served as a reminder of the sacrifices and determination displayed by the freedom fighters during the Dandi March. The rangoli designs beautifully depicted the significance of the Dandi March and its role in shaping India's freedom struggle. Overall, the rangoli competition successfully contributed to the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations, fostering a sense of appreciation for the rich history and cultural heritage of the nation. It provided an opportunity for students to showcase their creativity while paying homage to the freedom fighters who paved the way for India's independence.

Cleanliness Drive on Dandi March: Celebrating Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

Government P.G. College in Bazzpur celebrated the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav from 12th March 2021 to 5th April 2021, honoring India's struggle for independence. As part of the commemorative events, a cleanliness drive on the theme of the Dandi March was organized on 23rd March 2021. The initiative was led by Dr. Vimal Kumar Lakhtakiya, a faculty member of the college, aiming to instill a sense of cleanliness, hygiene, and environmental consciousness among the students. A total of 45 enthusiastic students from various departments and semesters actively participated in the cleanliness drive. Their dedication and willingness to contribute to the event demonstrated their commitment to maintaining a clean and green environment. The cleanliness drive focused on creating awareness about cleanliness and hygiene, drawing inspiration from the Dandi March, which symbolized Mahatma Gandhi's principles of cleanliness, self-reliance, and self-discipline. The participants enthusiastically cleaned different areas of the college campus, including classrooms, corridors, gardens, and common areas. They removed litter, collected waste, and ensured proper disposal. The event not only enhanced the cleanliness and hygiene standards within the college but also raised awareness among students about their responsibility to maintain a clean and healthy environment. The cleanliness drive aligned with the spirit of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and served as a reminder of Mahatma Gandhi's emphasis on cleanliness and sanitation. It reinforced the values of self-discipline and community involvement, promoting a sense of ownership and responsibility towards cleanliness and environmental conservation.

Skit Performance on Dandi March: Celebrating Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav Celebrations

Government P.G. College Bazpur celebrated Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav by organizing a skit performance on the theme of the Dandi March on 2nd April 2021. The skit aimed to pay tribute to the completion of 75 years of India's independence and educate the audience about the historic significance of the Dandi March. A group of seven talented students performed the skit, captivating the audience with their portrayal of this momentous event.

Skit Performance:

The skit focused on recreating the spirit and essence of the Dandi March, a pivotal moment in India's freedom struggle. The performers depicted the key events and emotions associated with the march, showcasing the determination, unity, and non-violent spirit of the freedom fighters led by Mahatma Gandhi.

Event Highlights:

The skit performance commenced with an introduction to the historical context of the Dandi March, providing the audience with an understanding of its significance. The performers skillfully enacted the journey of the freedom fighters, including the iconic breaking of the salt laws and the subsequent mass civil disobedience movement that followed.

The skit effectively conveyed the historical context, the importance of non-violent resistance, and the role of the Dandi March in shaping India's independence movement. It provided an educational and inspiring experience for the audience, reminding them of the sacrifices and struggles endured by the freedom fighters for the country's freedom.

Conclusion:

The skit performance on the theme of the Dandi March during the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations at Government P.G. College Bazpur was a poignant tribute to the completion of 75 years of India's independence. The dedication and talent displayed by the seven student performers resonated with the audience, evoking a deep appreciation for the historical significance of the Dandi March.

Nipun Training Camp
Date: 11th February 2020 - 15th February 2020

Introduction:

The Rover Ranger unit of Government P.G. College Bazaipur actively participated in the Nipun Training Camp organized by R.H. Government P.G. College, Kashipur, from 11th February 2020 to 15th February 2020. The camp aimed to enhance the skills, knowledge, and camaraderie of the participants through various activities, including cultural competitions, tent and bridge making competitions, and training sessions. Dr. Adarsh Chaudhri, Rover Leader, and Dr. Jaya Kandpal, Ranger Leader of Government P.G. College, accompanied the 18 students who participated in the camp.

Event Details:

The Nipun Training Camp took place at R.H. Government P.G. College, Kashipur. The Rover Ranger unit from Government P.G. College Bazaipur eagerly participated in the camp, joining other scout and guide units from different colleges across the region.

Highlights of the Event:

Cultural Competition: The Rover Ranger unit from Government P.G. College showcased their cultural prowess by participating in the cultural competition. They presented captivating dance performances, musical renditions, and theatrical acts that celebrated the cultural diversity of their region.

Tent and Bridge Making Competition: The camp included a tent and bridge making competition that tested the participants' technical skills, creativity, and ability to work as a team. The Rover Ranger unit from Government P.G. College exhibited their engineering capabilities by constructing functional tents and sturdy bridges using limited resources. They showcased their problem-solving skills, effective planning, and execution, receiving appreciation for their innovative designs.

Training Sessions: The Nipun Training Camp offered various training sessions aimed at developing the participants' scouting and guiding skills. The students had the opportunity to learn from experienced trainers and experts in fields such as leadership, first aid, outdoor survival techniques, and environmental conservation. These sessions equipped them with valuable knowledge and practical skills essential for their role as scouts and guides.

Recognition and Appreciation: The Rover Ranger unit from Government P.G. College Bazaipur received recognition and appreciation for their performances and contributions during the Nipun
